MARCO POLO

The Label of Discovery

The Marco Polo label is your gateway to a feast of new listening experiences, with recordings of works by classical composers both familiar and little-known, light music, film music and national music.

With many rarities drawn from the period 1850–1940 as its hallmark, this catalogue boasts a discovery on every page – from Aaron Avshalomov to Carl Michael Ziehrer, plus all stops in between. Whether you're in the mood for rarely performed works of well-known composers, or fancy dipping into the complete works of little-known composers, there's an endless supply to tempt you into an exploration of a whole new world of music, every bit as enlightening as Marco Polo's own historic excursions.

One of the many distinctions of the catalogue is the significant inclusion of the complete works of members of the Strauss family – Johann I, Johann II and Josef – in multi-volume editions, plus works by other light classical composers such as Waldteufel and Suppé, and numerous British light-music composers. And if you're in the mood for Wagner with a difference, you can try out one of the operas by his son, Siegfried, that probe the mysteries of the mediaeval world. Anyone looking for an extended project might like to get to know the string quartets, string quintets and symphonies of Louis Spohr, spread over 25 volumes.

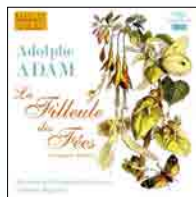

There's a generous choice of album compilations, representing a rich tapestry of music in different styles and from a variety of countries. Chinese classics occupy a large portion of the catalogue, featuring traditional fare alongside classical works by both the older and contemporary generations of composers, with new releases added regularly.

We are delighted to welcome you to the musical discoveries that Marco Polo has to offer. With many of the works in this catalogue available only on the Marco Polo label, we are confident you will enjoy the experience!
